

tunities which this field offers, are we doing all that we can and ought to do for the spread of Gospel doctrines here? We are not our own, but are bought with a price. Our Master has commanded us to preach the Gospel to every creature, and has placed us where we have unexcelled opportunities for this work.

Brethren of Indiana:—The last Sunday of June has been set as our second and last Missionary Rally Day for this year. How does your church stand? Have you raised your apportionment? Will you not work and pray for the work of Indiana on this day? We can not succeed without your help. Pastors, will you help? Where you lead your people will follow. Let the secretary know what you mean to do. A little from the many means many souls for the little.

Kanemorado Items

Sometime has elapsed since writing anything for publication. We are not dead, nor asleep.

June 1 we made our regular visit to Godfrey, Kans. Services at 11 o'clock, after which we repaired to the waterside, and buried a young lady with her Lord and Master in holy baptism, making the second one since last writing. Our revival has continued so far thru the year. Since last November our motto has been "keep the fire burning." Confirmation service preceding preaching in the evening. Before the regular service the Corresponding Secretary of the Y. P. C. E. read a letter from State Secretary requesting pledges for the State Convention at Leavenworth June 17. Six dollars was readily secured by pledges and a good part in cash. The Endeavor department of our work is wide awake at Godfrey, allowing none to excel us in our zeal, for every good word and work.

Hope brother J. C. Cassel will not forget us when he makes his tour of the churches in the west. We are not rich in earthly goods, but in good works, we are striving to come up to the gospel standard. We have a few members here who warmly advocate the tithe as the Lord's portion, and we are happy to say the sentiment is growing.

No questionable methods in raising money for the Lord's work, are entertained by the Godfrey church. The Lord's tenth and as he prospereth. The weekly gifts, attended by self denial and humble united prayer, is found to be the most successful and satisfactory way of raising money for the Lord's work.

Brethren and sisters in Christ, let us all, more and more seek to walk in the old paths in these things that God may the more richly bless us.

Gleanings From The Wayside

Only a handful of gatherings, but one sheaf for the Master is great in eternity.

Our last appointment at Lapaz was a busy one. Preached on Friday night at Riddle's school house. Had a good audience. On Saturday night at the church. Sunday school at 9:30; preaching at 10:30; baptism at 2:30, when two sisters in the flesh were led down into the sparkling waters of a beautiful lake. It was a beautiful baptismal scene. Young people's meeting at 6:30; preaching at 7:30; confirmation at 8 P. M. A large audience greeted us at this service. Communion Service on Monday night. Brethren Steel and Frame from North Liberty were present.

The work at this place is still slowly moving along. We are planning to have a grand rally of all the members of the Brethren church in this part of the State some time the last of June or the first of July. Have our love feast and communion, all the scattered members are invited and urged to be present. Will have two or three weeks meeting prior to the feast. Will give date of feast later. Come and bring the blessed Jesus with you. Let us see what can be done for Christ and the church. Any one desiring further information, write me.

Indiana Missions

It was purposed last fall to have two special days on which each church should raise her quota for state work.

The first date is past. The second day for offerings let it be the last Sunday of June.

At this time we hope all churches will respond and many raise their quota in full. So let us make a united effort and see what we can accomplish.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT THE COLLEGE

"There's a star on life's ocean shall cheer us,
When wildly its billows are tossed,
Till the haven of rest draweth near us,
And mem'ry's sweet song shall be lost.
And when its pure ray brightly gleaming,
Shines over the tempest tossed sea,
'Twill wake tho the wild winds are screaming,
Sweet thoughts Alma Mater of thee."

"Then work! for our time sweetly fleeth,
The harvest is waiting to fall,
'Tis trial our glory completeth,
And labor is waiting for all;
Whenever we follow our duty,
Our hope and our pride it shall be
To write upon pages of beauty,
Our debt, Alma Mater, to thee."

There are no days over which the skies bend in such soft lustrous glory as over our school days. There are no memories like the memories of one's "Alma Mater". There is no regard quite the same as that the graduate feels for the college that opened to him visions of the completer life, practiced his hand and nerved his heart for the manlier strife. Ashland College does not yet number her graduates by the thousands, but each passing year sends forth a larger class who look fondly back to her as the mother of their education. Each year increasing numbers gather within her walls to secure discipline, to acquire knowledge, to gather inspiration for noble successful achievement in life's activities.

The past year has been an epoch-making year in the history of the College. There have been large and substantial gains in many directions. The attendance has been largely increased, and greatly augmented has been the enthusiasm and hopeful confidence in large and certain future success.

That the influence of the College is deepening and widening, that it is destined to become the dominant force in the Brethren church, and a not insignificant factor in public education, was impressed upon all who witnessed the series of interesting and instructive events which made up the commencement exercises of 1902. These began with
